BASEBALL NOTES.

Fans are getting anxious about their world's series seats. Already Ban Johnson and Thomas Lynch, the big league bosses are receiving requests Resten 0 1 2 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 3 Pittsburg 2 0 0 1 0 0 0 0 1 1-4

Johnny Evers showed Roger Bresna-han who was boss of the Cubs when he benched the former St. Louis manager. Guess Johnny will have his say while he is managing.

Brooklyn fooled all the critics and scribes in the National league. Last month the Superbas looked like the goods, right now they look like the goods, but they have not delivered them. Not a western team managed to take the series from the Glants in the Polo grounds recently. Guess such a showing is enough to guarantee the pennant for the National league

McGraw had a chance to get young Fred Krommers, who is starring in the Pirate outfield, but passed him up, according to a yarn that emanates from Springfield, Ill., where formerly Kommers played.

The Mongolian baseball team, representing the university of Hawaii, seems to know all the ins and outs of the national game. The Chinese team has lost only one game out of 64 Two base hits, Knabe, Lobert; three base hits, Wil-Owner Clarkin of Hartford has exchanged Pitcher "Bill" Powers for Pitcher Freddie Rieger of New London. Rieger recently left the London team because Jimmie Burns It is estimated that, including pro-fits of his stock and share of the salary. Jake Stahl, cleared over $25,000 with the Red Sox last year. doesn't he start his own bank?

The New England league fans would be pleased to see some of the um-pires order payers off the grounds for too much talking, Rorty and Bannon are fearless workers, but White and O'Brien allow the players to say

Although Umpire Kennedy is in a jovial mood while officiating on the diamond, the players do not get away with anything on him. Several times he warned players of their abuse and threatened to tack on fines. Eastern Association players batting 300 or over officially, exclusive Springfield and Pittsfield, are: Kauff .368, Holden .354, Warner ,333, Batch .333, Ireland .329, Pepe .313, Foster .311, Morley .310, Vanderkrift .300, Ger-Youth is being served in the American league race for batting laurels, but in the National league the old times are crowding near the top, with such names as Cravath, Crandall, Kling, Wagner, Huggins and Titus in the front ranks.

Outfielder Byrnes of the Ponies seems to be a big favorite with the fans. Although he is subject to some comment because of his unique fielding, everyone likes to see him come to bat, for he looks threatening. On 1 0 0 0 0 the coaching line he makes a noise.
